Certification and Release (read carefully prior to signing)

I certify that the answers and information provided by me in this application are true, correct and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand that Telluride Fire Protection District (TFPD) has the right to refuse participation or immediately discharge me at any time if it is discovered that I have provided incomplete, untrue, or misleading information in this application and on any other documentation submitted at any time during the application process or my volunteer term.

I authorize TFPD and its agents, including authorized third parties, to verify the answers and information provided to TFPD in this application and to make any investigation of my background as deemed necessary. I authorize former employers, law enforcement organizations, education institutions, and any other third party contacted by TFPD or its representatives, to release any information they have regarding me. I hereby release from liability TFPD and its representatives for seeking such information and all other persons, corporations or organizations for furnishing information. I authorize investigation of all information as may be necessary to arrive at a pre-volunteer participation decision.

I agree that if I am selected to volunteer with the TFPD, I will comply with the rules, regulations, policies, procedures, protocols, standard operating guidelines, volunteer handbook and cost containment plan as set forth. I acknowledge that these rules, regulations, policies, procedures and other terms and conditions may be changed, interpreted, withdrawn, updated or added to by TFPD as necessary and without any prior notice to me.

I understand that this is not a contract of employment. I understand that my volunteer participation can be terminated, with or without cause, at any time at the discretion of either TFPD or myself.

I understand that it is my responsibility to keep TFPD informed of changes in my application to include address, phone number, email address, volunteer availability and other necessary/ needed information.

I also understand that, depending on TFPD policy and the needs of volunteering after an offer to begin volunteer may be required to submit to and pass a drug test, medical and psychological review by a medical professional designated by TFPD and TFPD has the right to obtain and review such results.

Being a volunteer emergency responder can be a challenging endeavor demanding a large commitment of your time and effort participating in response, training and community service. The benefits are modest while the rewards are many. It requires and demands a team effort and respect from each member to find success. Your family and employer become a part of this team as well.

Family and Employer Consent

Please explain and share the expectations with your spouse, family and employer so they understand the process and can participate with support while you serve your community as a volunteer emergency responder.
